Green Committee from the Meadville Conference: Rev. L. W. Mason, D. D., Rev. R. W. Boynton, Rev. Henry T. Secrist. THE INSTITUTE. The Institute is arranged under the direction of the Meadville Theological School, the Unitarian Sunday School Society, and the Meadville District Conference. It will be held for two weeks, beginning on Monday evening, June 26, and closing Monday noon, July 10, 1911. The sessions will be held at the Theological School. THE PROGRAM. Service will be held in the Chapel every morning. Francis A. Christie, D. D., professor of Church History in the Theological School, will give a course of lectures on the subject, How Christian Dogma Arose and Its Relation to Christian Experience. This course is given at the unanimous request of the members of last summer s school and is an expression of the high appreciation of Dr. Christie s course then given. It will be of great value. Rev. J. T. Sunderland, author of The Bible, Its Origin, Growth and Character, The Bible and the Bible Country, in the Beacon Series, a prominent writer, preacher and worker among Unitarians, will give a course of lectures on The Use of the Bible in Religious Education. Mr. Sunderland s wide knowledge and experience will add greatly to the session. Rev. William I. Lawrance, president of the Unitarian Sunday School Society, will be present and will give lectures and conduct conferences on subjects relating to the conduct of Sunday Schools. By these and...
