I have not visited Hayti since the last inauguration of a republican form of government. My information may not therefore be of the freshest, nor my advice the best, but such as they are, they shall be at your service and that of our countrymen of African blood. I will first give you some brief account of the trades of Hayti, and then speak of its agriculture. I am aware that few of the African race, in this part of the country, have been bred to mechanical occupations. This, however, is not the case with all of them elsewhere; and besides, the subject naturally includes facts of some general interest. The sedentary trades of the tailor and shoemaker are popular, and tolerably well supported, in the towns of Hayti,...
