

Light Manufacturing in Vietnam: Creating Jobs and Prosperity in a Middle-Income Economy

By Hinh T. Dinh

World Bank Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 144 pages. Dimensions: 9.9in. x 6.9in. x 0.4in. Light Manufacturing in Vietnam makes the case that, if the country is to continue along a rapid economic growth path and create jobs, it must undertake a structural transformation that can lift workers from low-productivity agriculture and the mere assembly of imported inputs to higher-productivity activities. Vietnam needs to address fundamental issues in the manufacturing sector that, until now, have been masked by economic growth. The book shows that there is a dichotomy between domestic enterprises and foreign-invested enterprises. The smaller domestic firms are not integrated with the dominant state-owned enterprises and foreign-invested firms through forward or backward links in the use of domestically produced inputs or intermediate products. Growth in the domestic light manufacturing sector has arisen from the sheer number of micro and small enterprises rather than from expansion in the number of medium and large firms. As a consequence, final products have little value added; technology and expertise are not shared; and the economy cannot move up the structural transformation ladder. This structure of production is one of the reasons Vietnams rapid process of industrialization over the last three decades has not...
