The man that don t like England exclaimed honest Jack Fuller, in the heat of parliamentary debate, damn him, let him leave it! In turning over the page of history, we contemplate with enthusiasm the martial prowess of our ancestors, who were called to defend not only their own liberties, but those of mankind. Britain has maintained her proud supremacy among nations through a long series of ages; trampled down stern oppression, that threatened, and (with her own glorious exception) had well nigh spread abroad, universal anarchy; and crowned the august work by giving peace to the world, and freedom to the slave. Whatever brings to our recollection the triumphs of the past deserves our gratitude; but when genius applies itself to the task, how truly it commands our admiration! The deeds of heroes were the favourite theme of the poets of old, and their noblest strains were devoted to immortalise patriotism and valour. Blessings on the memory of the bard, and palms eternal flourish round his urn, who first struck his lyre to celebrate the wooden walls, and the brave, generous, Jack Tars of unconquered and unconquerable Old England! If earth hide him, light be the green turf on his breast; if ocean cover him calm be the wave on its surface! - May his spirit find rest where souls are blessed, and his body be shrined in the holiest cave of the deep and silent sea! Among...
