Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Prospectus of the Humbird Land and Improvement Company of Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland: Office No; 9 South Liberty Street, Up Stairs The Humbird Land and Improvement Company offer for sale the lands designated by the accompanying plat, twenty-three acres of which lie on the north side of the Baltimore and Ohio lands, which are to be used for yards and shops; one hundred and forty-seven acres adjoin the same property on the south. This property is in close proximity to the Crown and Cumberland Steel works and Queen City Glass works, who employ a large wage-earning population. Many of the employees of these establishments are obliged to live at a great distance from their work on account of the lack of dwelling houses; and the new population to be brought here by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for employment in their shops and yards is to be provided for. The land of the Humbird Company gently slopes towards the Chesapeake and Ohio canal and the Potomac river, making it suitable for residences, business houses and...
