As stated above, technical and schedule problems make it unlikely this milestone will be met. The Committee also notes that this projected March 2001 date is just two months into the beginning of a new Administration and Congress. The Committee believes there must be sufficient time for the next Administration to formulate its own plans for the JSF in the context of its own overall defense program. In this regard, a March 2001 decision point involving a program of this importance is clearly unrealistic. Therefore, the Committee recommends the following actions: (1) The Committee bill includes total fiscal year 2001 funding for the Joint Strike Fighter of 706, 606, 000, a net decrease of 150, 000, 000 from the budget request. Within this total the Committee has provided 411, 101, 000 for concept demonstration, an increase of 150, 000, 000 over the budget request; and 295, 502, 000 for engineering and manufacturing development (EMD), a decrease of 300, 000, 000 from the budget request. These changes have been allocated to the appropriate program elements in the Navy and Air Force research, development, test and evaluation accounts. The effect of these changes is to provide sufficient funding to extend the concept demonstration validation phase from March to June 2001; and to delay initiation of entry into the engineering and manufacturing development phase of the JSF program by three months, from March to June 2001. (2) To ensure that Congress is kept apprised of...
