America Star Books, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My name is Mary and I am a 56 year old mother and grandmother. I was born in Wiltshire, England and raised in Santa Barbara, CA. I have always been blessed with a creative side and a love of words. Poetry, lyrics, wise quotations, humorous come-backs, anything that could make another person want to read it or write it down or maybe just stop and think. After having grandchildren I decided to write a children s book. Create a place, or a time, or a character that young children would enjoy reading about. In The Docks I have managed to do all of that and more. There are unique characters in this story, each with a personality to match. A young boy named Tackle Logan spends his days with the boats that live at the docks but they aren t just boats, they are his friends. All of them have something special about them from Alby, a little fishing boat with a very high IQ, to Tugger, a very small, very insecure little tugboat. There are many other characters including, Seaworthy, a big deep sea fishing boat, and Old Pirate, who has been stuck in the same place for a hundred years and is falling apart. Four old houseboats and even a bunch of snobby yacht s that live up the shore add to the story. Life is wonderful until the threat of progress disrupts life on the docks. There s talk of it all being bought by a big city developer, C Cecil Banks, who plans to tear it all down and build a new marina. When a big storm hits the bay the fate...
